Plaintiffs,

v.

PRESIDENT DONALD J. TRUMP, et al.,

Defendants,

and

TC ENERGY CORPORATION, et al.,

Defendant-Intervenors.

CV-19-28-GF-BMM

ORDER

The Court denied TC Energy's and Federal Defendants' Motions to Dismiss on December 20, 2019. (Doc. 73.) The Court's Order denying Defendants' Motions to Dismiss fully resolved those motions. The Court also ordered all parties to submit supplemental briefing on or before January 24, 2020. (Doc. 74.) All parties complied. (Docs. 76, 80 & 81.) The Court further provided the parties with the opportunity to file response briefs to their opponents' supplemental briefs on or before February 14, 2020. (Doc. 74.)

TC Energy has filed a motion for summary judgment. (Doc. 77.) Plaintiffs thereafter filed a renewed motion for preliminary injunction and application for temporary restraining order. (Doc. 82.) TC Energy notified the Court that it will not engage in any construction-related activities that it identified in its January 14, 2020, status report until February 24, 2020. (Doc. 83.)

The Court possess the inherent power to manage its own affairs to achieve the orderly and expeditious disposition of cases. See Link v. Wabash R. Co., 370 U.S. 626, 630–31 (1962). The Court issues this order to clarify the order, timing, and management of the pending motions and overlapping briefing schedule. Upon review of the most recent docket filings, the Court determines that the parties should not file response briefs to the supplemental briefs, as previously ordered on December 20, 2019. (Doc. 74.) The Court will consider the arguments each party made in its supplemental briefing as it considers summary judgment motions.

The parties shall, if they wish to file the following motions, responses, and replies, observe this schedule:
